We are going through the worst pandemic anyone has ever know in our lifetime. United we are working together to ensure our deceased members have their loyal service to the Order ultimately recognised.

Any death is met with anguish and heartache, this is made worse due to social distancing restrictions preventing the loved ones and Lodge members from ensuring our brethren receive their final ceremony, with the dignity they deserve.

By recording the passing of members, we will be able to ensure our brethren can rest in peace knowing they were never forgotten, even in the Orders darkest hour. To help us achieve this Minor Lodge Secretaries could use the official Form 52 and send it to Head Office, the information can be emailed to hq@raobgl.org.uk.

Yours fraternally

Grand Secretary
